OFFERING OF MEMBERSHIPS

Offering of Memberships

Membership is currently being offered to initial purchasers of property in the Mid South Club and Talamore community (the "Community").

Reserved Memberships for Future Property Owners

The Club has the right to reserve Memberships for future property owners of the Mid South and Talamore Community in any of the Membership Programs. The Club may not be compelled to sell a reserved Membership. The Club may issue a reserved Membership to any person who the Club, in its sole discretion, determines appropriate from time to time.

Initial Purchasers of property at Mid South and Talamore

Each initial purchaser of a property in the Mid South Club or Talamore Community may at any time within 30 days from the date of their closing on the property, apply for a Reserved Property Owner's Membership in the Club, provided the Club has a Reserved Property Owner's Membership for sale in the applicant's desired Membership Program. The Club is reserving Holly Memberships and a limited number of other Memberships for initial purchasers of property; however NO Memberships of any kind are being reserved for property owners after their 30-day period has expired.

If an initial purchaser of property does not apply for Membership within 30 days from the date of their closing on the property, the Club will NOT be required to make Membership available thereafter to the purchaser or to the subsequent purchaser of his or her property. New property purchasers are therefore strongly encouraged to acquire a Membership within 30 days of their real estate closing if they desire to join the Club.

OWNERSHIP OF A PROPERTY DOES NOT GIVE ANY VESTED RIGHT OR EASEMENT, PRESCRIPTIVE OR OTHERWISE, TO USE THE CLUB FACILITIES, OR TO ACQUIRE A MEMBERSHIP IN THE CLUB AND DOES NOT GRANT ANY OWNERSHIP OR MEMBERSHIP INTEREST IN THE CLUB OR THE CLUB FACILITIES.

Membership Privileges Prior to Closing

The Club may allow the initial purchaser of property in the Community to use the Club Facilities as a Member prior to the closing on their property. The person will be required to pay the applicable Membership Deposit, dues, fees and other charges established by the Club from time to time. In the event the purchaser does not timely close on the property, the Club may terminate the Membership privileges by returning to the person the Membership Deposit. The unused portion of any dues, fees and charges paid by the person in advance for the remainder of the Membership Year will be deemed non-refundable. In this event, a Membership will thereafter be made available to the person only in the discretion of the Club.

Ownership of Multiple Properties in the Community

If a person acquires two or more properties in the Community, the purchaser can acquire a Membership for each property for which Membership privileges are desired. If the person does not acquire a Membership for each property, the Club will not guarantee that a Membership will be available for the property at a later date. Persons who acquire two or more contiguous lots but who construct only one residence may desire only one Membership. If a Membership is not acquired for the contiguous lot and the contiguous lot is subsequently sold, the Club has no obligation to make a reserved Membership available to the subsequent purchaser.

Waiting List

If a person desires to acquire a Membership in a particular category of Membership and a Membership is not available in that category, the Club will establish a waiting list for that particular category of Membership. Resigned Memberships that are not reissued to the subsequent purchaser of a resigned Member's property in the Community or that are not repurchased by the Club, as hereinafter provided, will be offered to persons on the waiting list in accordance with the following order of priorities:

*First, to Members of the Club who desire to upgrade to a higher category of Membership;
Second, to property owners in the Community who are not Members of the Club; and*

Multiple Owners of Property

In the event a property is owned by more than one person (other than spouses), each owner is eligible to obtain a Resident Membership for the applicable property/community. Only one Membership can be transferred through the Club to the subsequent purchaser of the property, as provided hereafter. If an additional Membership is obtained, the reissuance of the resigned Membership is subject to the "Transfer of Membership" provisions in this Membership Plan.

MEMBERSHIP DEPOSIT

Membership Deposit Required to Acquire Membership

Each person who desires to acquire a Membership will be required to pay a Membership Deposit based on the Membership Program and Category of Membership as determined by the Club from time to time. Membership Deposits are not transferable, except as specifically provided in this Membership Plan, and are refundable only in accordance with this Membership Plan, the Rules and Regulations of the Club, the Membership Agreement and Application for Membership. Depending on the plan selected, a portion, or all of the Membership Deposit may be non-refundable. Please see the Schedule of Dues and Charges and Membership Application for more information. The Club may apply different provisions for the transferability and refund ability of Membership Deposits for different Membership Categories and Programs.

Refundable Portion of the Membership Deposit

The refundable portion of the Presidential Membership Deposit paid by a Member will be refunded, without interest, within 30 days after the reissuance of the resigned Membership by the Club to a new Member, in accordance with the "Transfer of Membership" provision in this Membership Plan.

The refundable portion of the Membership Deposit paid by a Member will be refunded, without interest, 30 years after the date the Membership is issued by the Club if the Member does not resign within 30 years.

The Club's obligation to refund a portion of the Membership Deposit to the Member shall be as stated by the Membership Agreement and the Application for Membership Privileges. Upon the reissuance of a resigned Membership to a new Member, a new 30-year period for the refund of the Membership Deposit begins on the date the Membership is reissued. The difference between the amount paid by the new Member and the amount refunded to the resigning Member will be retained by the Club.

Financing of Membership Deposit

Members may finance their Membership Deposit through a third party lender, however, if the Member defaults on their payments to the third party lender and the lender forecloses its security interest in the Membership, the Membership will be deemed to be resigned and the refund will be repaid to the lender when the Membership has been reissued by the Club to a new Member. The amount of refund paid to a lender upon reissuance of the Membership to a new Member will be based on the Membership Deposit paid by the Member for that Membership and the applicable portion which is refundable.

Club Installment Plan

The Club reserves the right to offer a Club installment plan for the payment of Membership Deposits and charge interest on any outstanding balances. Information on any such plans, if available, is available at the Club office.

Member May Continue Membership at End of Thirty Years

A Member who continues to be a Member for 30 years will receive a refund of the applicable portion of the Membership Deposit and will continue his or her Membership until the Member subsequently resigns from the Club and will continue to pay the applicable Membership dues, fees and charges. Any Member who continues his or her Membership after the end of the 30-year period will not be counted toward any cap or limits on the total number of Members or the number of Members in any category.

Deduction of Amounts Owed to Club

The Club will deduct from any amount to be repaid to the Member any amount which the Member owes the Club.

Tax Consequences of Acquiring Membership

The Club makes no representations and expresses no opinions regarding the federal, state or local income tax consequences of acquiring a Membership or with respect to any Membership Deposits paid to the Club. All persons acquire their Membership subject to all applicable tax laws, as the same may be amended from time to time. Accordingly, Members should consult with their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of any Membership Deposits.

TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP

Transfer of Membership through Club

A Member may resign his or her Membership and arrange for the Club to reissue the Membership. Should a Member desire to resign from the Club, the Member shall be required to give written notice to the Club. Resignation of a Member is irrevocable, unless otherwise determined by the Club.

 A Member may not transfer or sell his or her Membership to any person or entity.*

Transfer Upon Sale of Property in the Community

A Member who resigns from the Club upon the sale of their property in the Community may arrange for the Club to reissue their Membership to the subsequent purchaser of their property in the Community regardless of whether all of the Memberships in that category have been issued and regardless of whether there are any resigned Memberships on the waiting list. The subsequent purchaser desiring the resigned Membership will be required to submit a Membership Agreement, will be subject to the approval of the Club and will be required to pay the Transfer Fee and applicable Membership Deposit which is then in effect. The subsequent purchaser must acquire the Membership and commence dues payments within 30 days of the real estate closing based on the Membership program selected / transferred.

Transfer Fees allow for Holly/Magnolia Membership program privileges

In the event of a transfer of property within the community, the payment of the Transfer Fee and accepted application will allow the subsequent property owner to participate in the Holly or Magnolia Membership programs without the payment of any additional Membership Deposits.

Transfer of Presidential Program Privileges Upon Sale of Property in the Community

A Member who is participating in the Presidential Membership Program who resigns from the Club upon the sale of his or her property in the Community may arrange for the Club to reissue their Presidential Membership to the subsequent property owner of their property in the Community through the Club. In addition to the required Transfer Fee, the subsequent owner must pay the then current applicable Presidential Membership Deposit.

In the event the total Membership Deposit received by the Club is more than the Membership Deposit originally paid by the resigning Member - either because a new property owner elects a different Membership or because the applicable Membership Deposit fees are higher than those originally paid by the resigning Member - the Club will refund the amount due the resigning Member per their application in full within 30 days of the transfer and receipt of payment by the new property owner.

In the event the total Membership Deposit received by the Club by a new property owner is less than the Membership Deposit originally paid by the resigning Member because the new property owner elects to participate in a different program than the resigning Member, the Club will refund the lesser amount received to the resigning Member in full within 30 days of the transfer and receipt of payment by the new property owner and shall place the resigning Member on the appropriate Resigned Members Waiting list along with the amount still required to be repaid. Such additional monies due shall be repaid in accordance with the provisions of the Resigned Membership Waiting List.

If the Club has instituted a Club Installment Plan for Membership Deposits, and a new property owner elects to participate in such a program, refunds due for the resigning Member's Deposit will be based on the receipt by the Club of the required payments by the new property owner. In the event of forfeiture by the new property owner during a club installment plan cycle, the resigning Member will be placed on the appropriate Resigned Members Waiting list along with any amounts still required to be repaid. Such additional monies due shall be repaid in accordance with the provisions of the Resigned Membership Waiting List.

Transfer to New Property within Community

If a Member sells their property within the Community, and purchases another property within the Community, they may continue that Membership regardless of the identity of the seller of the new property. However, the availability of a Membership for the purchaser of the Member's property shall be determined as follows:

- (a) If the Member purchases a property from the Club or the Development Company or one of its approved builders or other designees, the purchaser of the Member's property in the Community can then apply for a Reserved Membership for the then current Membership Deposit from the Club.*
- (b) If the Member purchases a property from another Member who resigns their Membership upon the sale of the property, the purchaser of the first Member's property in the Community can then acquire through the Club the resigned Membership for the then current Membership Deposit, subject to submission of proper forms from both the Member moving within the Community and the resigning Member and the payment of applicable Transfer Fees.*
- (c) If the Member purchases a property from a property owner who is not a Member, the purchasing Member may take their Membership with them to the new property; however, the Club will NOT be required to make a reserved Membership available to the subsequent purchaser of the Members' property.*

The Club reserves the right to charge a Transfer Fee for any transfers of Membership within the Community.

Transfer Through Waiting List

A resigned Membership will be placed on a waiting list. The Club will maintain a separate waiting list for property owners in the Community and non-property owners. Memberships on the waiting list will be reissued on a first-resigned, first-reissued basis as follows, unless the Member arranges for the subsequent purchaser of their property in the Community to acquire their Membership as previously described:

- (a) Prior to the initial sale of all Memberships within a Membership Category or Membership Program, every fourth Membership issued in that Category or Program (1 in 4) will be a resigned Membership from the waiting list, provided there is a resigned Membership on the waiting list. The other three Memberships sold will be from the Club's un-issued Memberships. This procedure allows the reissuance of resigned Memberships prior to the issuance of all Memberships in the Club.*
- (b) After the initial sale of all Memberships within a Membership Category or Membership Program, every other Membership sold in that Category or Program (1 in 2) will be a resigned Membership from the waiting list.*

Club must receive payment in full of the Membership Deposit for completion of reissuance

The Club will complete the reissuance of a resigned Membership only after an acceptable individual, family or corporation desires the resigned Membership and has paid the full amount of the required Membership Deposit.

For purposes of a refund of a Membership Deposit, a new Membership will not be considered fully issued until payment of the entire Membership Deposit has been paid in full. This applies to any and all Memberships which utilize the Club Installment Plan, if such a plan is provided by the Club.

Repurchase of Memberships Under Other Circumstances

The Club is not obligated to repurchase a Membership under any circumstances, other than the circumstances specifically described in this Membership Plan. The Club may, in its sole discretion, repurchase a resigned Membership, which is not being transferred to the subsequent purchaser of the resigning Member's residence in the Community, on terms agreed to by the Club and the Member. Any Membership so purchased shall be added to the Club's reserved Memberships.

Allowance to use Membership Deposits towards Club dues

In the event of resignation by a Member, and only with the agreement of the Club which may be withheld at its sole and absolute discretion, a resigned Member may apply any amounts of their Membership Deposit which are refundable towards the payment of Club dues for the Membership Year following their resignation. Such application may be limited to certain Membership Programs at the Club's discretion. At such time when the amounts used by the resigning Club Member for subsequent year dues are equal to the amounts due for the refundable portion of their Membership Deposit, or pro rata thereof, the resigned Member will no longer have any Membership Privileges at the Club and the Club shall no longer have any liability for repayment of any portion of the Membership Deposit. The Club may require a separate written agreement between the resigning Member and the Club for any such arrangements.

Requirement for Minimum Membership tenure to be eligible for a refund of the applicable portion of the Membership Deposit

The Club reserves the right to require a minimum tenure of Membership to be eligible for a refund of the applicable portion of the Membership Deposit. Please see the Membership Application and Schedule of Dues, Fees and Charges for further details.

Transfer of Membership upon Death of Member

Upon the death of a Member, the Membership will be transferred to the Member's surviving spouse or child without the payment of any additional Membership Deposit. If there is no surviving spouse or child or the surviving spouse or child does not desire to continue the Membership, the Membership will be deemed to have been resigned, with no further obligation for dues, fees, or other charges, and will be reissued by the Club on the same basis as any other resigned Membership.

Legal Separation or Divorce

In the event of the divorce or separation of spouses having Membership privileges, the Membership, including all of its rights and benefits, will vest in the spouse awarded the Membership by an agreement of separation or a decree of divorce. Until the award of the Membership and written notice thereof is provided to the Club, both spouses will be jointly and severally liable for all dues and charges and both may continue to enjoy Membership privileges so long as such amounts are timely paid. The Club reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to transfer the Membership to either spouse if the Club, in its sole discretion, is unable to determine the person who is lawfully entitled to receive the Membership. In the case of divorce, if the Club has been unable to determine which spouse is legally entitled to the Membership within six months after the date of the divorce decree, the Membership shall automatically be deemed resigned.

DUES AND CHARGES

Dues, Fees and Charges

The Club will determine the amount of dues, fees and charges to be payable by Members each year. Annual Dues shall be payable in full on or before January 1 of the Membership Year, unless otherwise determined by the Club from time to time. The current dues, fees and charges for use of the Club Facilities are indicated on the Schedule of Dues, Fees and Charges. The amount of dues, fees and other charges is subject to change from time to time by the Club.

Dues are non refundable. If a Member resigns their Membership during the Membership year, no pro-rations of Membership dues are payable by the Club. In its sole and absolute discretion, the Club reserves the right to make an exception for the repayment of dues for extraordinary circumstances or in a situation whereby a property is transferred, the scheduled Transfer Fee is paid and the new Member selects and pays for a similar Membership program and dues structure as the resigning Member. The amount of any dues refunded for any special or otherwise specified circumstance shall be solely determined by the Club.

A Transfer Fee is required to reissue a Membership to a subsequent purchaser of property in the community. The amount of the Transfer Fee is subject to change from time to time by the Club. Transfer Fees are non-refundable.

Pro-Rated Dues and other Annual Fees

The Club requires payment of dues and other annual fees in full for all Members applying for Membership up to a specified date in the Membership Year. Persons applying for Membership privileges or purchasing services which require an annual fee on or after the date specified by the Club shall pay the required amount of annual dues or other annual fees as determined by the current pro-ration policy of the Club regardless of how many months remain in the Membership Year.

The Club reserves the right to have different pro-ration policies for different Membership Categories, Membership Programs and other annual fees and may amend its pro-ration policy from time to time. Please see the Rules and Regulations for the current Pro Ration policies.

No Assessments

Members will only pay Membership dues, fees and other charges established from time to time. Members will not be subject to any liability for capital or operating assessments for the costs and expenses of ownership or operation of the Club or the Club Facilities. The Company will pay all operating deficits incurred in the operation of the Club Facilities and will retain all operating revenues resulting from operation of the Club Facilities. Annual increases in dues shall not be deemed an assessment for purposes of this provision. Dues may only be increased once per year. The budget and the calculation of the dues may include a reserve for capital replacements and improvements and this shall not be deemed an assessment for purposes of this provision.

Membership Year

The Club's Membership Year will constitute the twelve-month period commencing January 1 and ending December 31, unless otherwise established by the Club from time to time.

Payment of Dues by Resigned Member

A resigned Member shall be obligated to continue to pay dues, fees and other charges associated with the resigned Membership until the earlier of: (i) the reissuance of the Membership by the Club, or (ii) for a period of one year after the resignation occurs. A resigned Member shall be permitted to use the Club Facilities during the period in which dues are continued to be paid. In the event that there are any amounts owing to the Club by a resigned Member which are past due, the Club reserves the right to move the resigned Membership to the bottom of the reissuance waiting list until such amounts have been paid in full. The Club reserves the right to waive dues required payments by a resigned Member for extraordinary circumstances as solely determined by the Club.

In the event of termination of the entire Membership Plan, the Club at its sole discretion may a) refund the applicable refundable portion of the Membership Deposit to the affected Members within a time period specified by the Club or b) allow the Member to apply an amount specified by the Club of the refundable portion of the Membership Deposit to future Club dues and services at rates then specified by the Club. In the event that the Club Facilities are sold and the buyer assumes liability for the repayment of the appropriate Membership Deposit as provided in the Membership Agreement, the Member shall look solely to the new owner for repayment of the Membership Deposit and the seller of the Club Facilities shall be released from all liability for the repayment thereof. In the event of a sale of the Club Facilities, the buyer shall take title subject to the terms and provisions of the then existing Membership Plan. Neither the Club, the Development Company, its directors, owners or affiliates shall have any liability whatsoever to the Members in the event the Clubhouse or amenities are not constructed within the specified time frames.

Discipline

Members are responsible for their own conduct and for the conduct of their family members and guests. Any Member whose conduct or whose family's or guest's conduct shall be deemed by the Club to be likely to endanger the welfare, safety, harmony or good reputation of the Club or its Members or is otherwise improper, may be reprimanded, suspended or expelled from the Club and have all privileges associated with the Membership suspended or terminated by the Club. The Club shall be the sole judge of what constitutes improper conduct, but improper conduct will include, without limitation: (i) failing to meet eligibility for Membership, (ii) submitting false information on the Membership Agreement, (iii) allowing his or her membership card to be used by another person, (iv) failing to pay any amount owed to the Club in a proper and timely manner, (v) failing to abide by the rules and regulations as set forth herein and as established by the Club from time to time, (vi) abusing Club personnel or employees, or (vii) acting in a manner incompatible with the standard of conduct of the existing Membership or which would likely injure the reputation of the Members or the Club.

Any Member accused of improper conduct shall be notified of the Club's proposed disciplinary action and shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the Club to show cause why he or she should not be disciplined. If such Member desires to be heard, the Club shall set a time and date (not less than ten days thereafter) for a hearing. While such complaint is being considered by the Club, the Member shall enjoy the privileges of the Club. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Club may, without notice and without a hearing, immediately suspend some or all privileges associated with a Membership and/or, after notice, terminate a Membership for failure to pay in a proper and timely manner dues, fees or any other amounts owed to the Club.

The Club may restrict or suspend some or all of a Member's, family member's and/or guest's Club privileges. If the Club determines that a Member's conduct or the conduct of his or her family or guest is improper, the Club may expel the Member, suspend or restrict the Member's Membership privileges, or restrict the use privileges of the Member's family or guest whose conduct was improper. No Member is entitled, on account of any restriction, suspension or termination, to any refund of any Membership Deposit, dues or any other fees. During the restriction or suspension, dues and other charges shall continue to accrue and shall be paid in full prior to reinstatement as a Member in good standing.

In the event of an expulsion hereunder, the Club in its sole and absolute discretion may:

- a) Place the Membership on the waiting list for reissuance and the Member's Membership Deposit shall be returned to the Member upon reissuance of the Membership in the same manner as in the case of any resigned Membership. The amount refunded to the person will be reduced by the amount of any unpaid dues, fees and charges.*

Or:

- b) Declare the applicable refundable portion of the Membership Deposit as non-refundable. All Membership privileges shall cease upon expulsion from the Club.*

The Club may take disciplinary action against a Member (including, without limitation, suspension or termination of Membership) for violations of the Property Owners' Association Declaration, Community Charter or Community rules and/or the Architectural Review Board or Committee rules or standards.
